Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

As a math major in college and an air traffic controller for over twenty two years, I am not only able to analyze information and process it, but also to do so quickly, efficiently and accurately. This carries over into my every day life where I analyze most situations to ensure the most positive and effective outcomes.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

As an air traffic controller, I am routinely required to make decisions based on information and situations that I have rapidly analyzed and do so in a manner which does not take into account favoritism but rather what works efficiently and safely for all "customers" involved. When I held a leadership position at work, I strived to assist all parties involved equally and to the best of my ability no matter my personal feelings or opinions. Personally, because of my analytical nature, I try to make decisions which result in the best overall outcome regardless of the parties involved.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

As a resident of the Austin area for more than eight years, I have lived, worked and volunteered in many different parts of the city. Initially living in a townhouse apartment off of MoPac, I was able to experience and enjoy the geography of the greenbelt area. After a brief stint in Pflugerville, I returned to Austin and purchased a condo in Tarrytown, where I enjoyed the proximity to the lake and beautiful homes, and observed off-campus student life. When I decided to purchase a new condo at Chestnut Commons by the new MLK Rail Station, I briefly moved to southeast Austin, east of I-35 near Woodward, while the condo was being built. Here I was able to enjoy Mable Davis Park and see a different side of off-campus student life. Upon completion of the condo, I was the first resident on the block and was witness to the rapid change of central east Austin. Frequently walking my dog, I experienced the changing diversity of the area, from the older African American residents, to the younger "hipsters" who were moving in to, finally, joggers and young families with strollers. Most recently, I moved to another part of town. This time, to a fixer upper in the Highland neighborhood. I was immediately struck by the diversity and warmth of my neighbors, from seniors, to empty nesters, to young couples just starting out. As a scooter rider, bicyclist (this definitely makes you aware of Austin's geography), mass transit user, avid walker, and car driver I am afforded unique opportunities to explore neighborhoods and back roads. I have worked at the airport for over eight years and volunteered in southeast Austin (off Stassney) for Meals on Wheels for almost two years. Because of my many residences throughout Austin, I appreciate and am committed to fairness and representation for all the diverse groups of the city.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I am applying for this position because I am excited to be a part of something which allows a more fair and equitable representation for the City of Austin. Having lived among many different ethnic and socioeconomic groups in Austin, when walking my dog it didn't matter who they were, if I said, "Hi!" they usually smiled and said, "Hi!" back. People, while not the same, deserve the same rights and opportunities and their voices to be heard.
